ner's.

..The best is always the cheapest, and that is what you will find in the line of groceries and provisions at D. M.
Barnett's—all of which he sells at hard pan figures for cash. He delivers goods in any part of town without extra charge.
..H. Post is prepared to give wonderful bargains in clocks, watches and jewelry, and has a very full stock for the holiday trade.
..J. P. Marsh is dealing out wonderful bargains in boots and shoes, and making fine boots to measure that "fit like a glove," and are as easy as a sock.

..The following conundrum, which we clip from an exchange, we commend to the special attention of all whom it may concern.
What business has a newspaper to spend time and money recommending a business man to the public, who doesn't think it pays to advertise?
..The Mattoon Journal has the following in regard to one of the Decatur papers. Who the "young colt" is, will doubtless be understood by the person to whom the term refers. We suppose that if the trot is to commence on the first of January, the nag is in training by this time.
The "young colt" of the Decatur Herald and Star is in double harness after the first of January. We hope he'll "get his match."
..The city of Sterling, in this State, is being treated to a course of lectures, in which Rev. T. DeWitt Talmadge is advertised as one of the lecturers, and in Dixon John B. Gough is on the list of lecturers for the winter. This looks like business, and is an illustration of what we of Decatur ought to do.
..The desert of Sahara covers 2,700, 000 square miles. This is an enormous amount of territory, which engineers think of turning into a great inland sea, by letting in the Atlantic ocean. It is equal in area to two-thirds of the United States, but can never be of value until its shores are lined with cities whose inhabitants use B. T. Babbitt's Best Soap.
..If your friend has a large red and has been ear, you must conclude that he has swollen irritating some of the New York City roughs and got it "chewed" by some fellow, it is only the result of a visit Friday night out of doors.
..Ice-packers could have no better weather for the prosecution of their work than they are now enjoying, and right well are they putting in the time.
The prospect now is that there will be a large stock gathered, in which case prices will be correspondingly low.
..Pork-packing is still going on in this city, and the amount put up this season will be largely in excess of what was laid in last year.
..Don't fail to get your seats for Humpty Dumpty at an early hour, as there will undoubtedly be a crowd.
..Scarcity of eggs is a matter of general complaint. Our groceryman are troubled to get enough to supply their patrons.
..All is not gold that glitters," but all that is said in regard to the New Shoe Store, sign of the Big Boot, selling goods so cheap, is the truth. Try them once.
..Nothing will be so appreciated by a husband as to have his good wife present him with a pair of those fine Slippers for a Christmas present, to be found at the New Shoe Store, sign of the Big Boot up side down, west of the Post-office
..Humpty Dumpty—This troupe is to give one of its excellent entertainments at the opera house to night. The pan-tomimes are new, and the array of talent is the most powerful in its line known to the American stage. Seats should be procured early, as there will doubtless be a crowded house. From first to last the show is immense in every respect.
..Lectures.—Are we to have any? Is the question still unsettled. If anything is done, somebody must do it. If a commencement is made in the direction of inaugurating a course of lectures, somebody has to move first. If any man will step to the front and set the ball in motion, we shall be pleased to help him take it up.

tion

PEOPLE'S DOCKET.
The People vs Michael Hackett, murder. Prisoner arraigned, and plea of not guilty entered. Consideration of the case set for Monday, Jan 1.
The People vs Robert N. Crafton, murder. Trial by jury commenced.
Adjourned to 8 o'clock Tuesday morning.
Getting a Jury.—In the case of The People vs Robert N. Crafton, which was called for trial yesterday afternoon, the entire session was occupied in obtaining five jurors. The regular panel was exhausted in a very short time, and bailiffs were kept busy for the balance of the day in calling men from the streets and places of business. Before court adjourned the Judge issued a venitro for fifty more men to be summoned from the body of the county.
This is a case in which much interest seems to center, and there is a strong array of talented counsel upon both sides. For the prosecution the following gentlemen appear: I. A. Buckingham, Esq., prosecuting attorney for this county, A. McGaskill, Esq., of Taylorville, Mr. Hoblet, of Lincoln, and Messrs.
Nelson & Roby, of this city.
The defense is conducted by Hon. J.
C. Robinson, of Springfield, Hon. A. B.
Bunn and Messrs. Crea & Ewing, of this city.
Great difficulty has attended the work of impaneling a jury, and not less than 150 men were called before the requisite twelve were obtained. At the noon adjournment eleven had been secured, and soon after the assembling of court the twelfth man was found who could satisfactorily answer the necessary interrogatories. The following are the names of the jurors:
John L. Ball, Lewis R. Stickle, David Blacklock, J. C. Walker, Virgil Devore, D. E. Moody, W. B. Jones, C. Lockwood, Benj. Calvin, W. W. Shockey, E. G. Cox, A. O. Horner.
As we go to press Mr. Hoblet is making the opening statement for the People, and will be followed by Mr. Crea, who will open for the defendant.
The widow and two children of Duff, the murdered man, are in attendance, as also are his two uncles, A. W. Duff and W. D. Duff, of Lincoln.

Murdered.—Some of our readers will probably remember the visit here, last summer, of Dr. Shade, of Huntington county, Pa. He came here to visit his nephew, W. P. Shade, and impressed those who met him as a man of strong character and superior worth. The sad intelligence now comes of his murder some days ago, by his son-in-law, whose conduct had long been a source of trouble to the family. It seems that an altercation of some kind took place, in which the son-in-law shot Dr. Shade three times, resulting in speedy death.
Mr. W. P. Shade was telegraphed for, and left at once for his old home, where he will probably remain some time, to settle up the affairs of his uncle, in whose family he was brought up, and who was a man of considerable property.

A Lady Writes: I consider the Charter Oak a blessing to every housekeeper who is fortunate enough to have so excellent a Cook Stove. A few of its merits are economy in fuel, quick baking, with a large reservoir that heats water quickly and hot enough for all household purposes. We use inferior soft coal, but the flues are so large that they require very little cleaning.

Horrid Murder and Suicide.—About three years since, there lived in Maroa a man by the name of Edward F. Case, who, while a resident of that place, married a Miss Hughes of that town.
Soon after marrying he removed to Calamus, Nebraska, where he resided for a time, and then removed to North Loupe, Valley county, Neb. A few days since information was received at Maroa that Case had murdered his wife and two small children, and then committed suicide by hanging.

tem—therefore, to prevent the latter, or Shoes, of the New Shoe Store, five

Big Boot up-side down.

Select Assembly.—Profs. Fero & Goodman will give another of their fashionable Soirees at their dancing academy, on Friday evening, Dec. 15th. A pleasant time may be expected. Something entirely new in the line of dancing will be upon the programme. Dancing from 8

Jack the Giant Killer.—W. H. Cooper, author of the new operatic version of "Jack the Giant Killer," and press agent to Harry Deakin's Lilliputian troupe, gave us a call to-day. This company is to appear here on Wednesday and Thursday evenings of this week. Of the performance the Milwaukee Sentinel holds the following language:
"It is immense, to say it in brief—Those who went to the Academy of Music last evening, simply to see five little folks and a giant, had a perfect revelation in the play, in the acting and in the music. This combination is the happiest conception in the way of dramatic variety that has ever been exhibited in this country. It is composed of Miss Jennie Quigley, Commodore Nutt, Miss Nathaniel, Major Houghton, Major Nathaniel and Miss Ella Kingdon, the last a true people, and Col. Goshen, the last a true people in the world. The collection of this company merely for exhibition purposes would surely any enterprise of the kind ever made by Barnum. But the simple exhibition is the smallest part of it. The story of "Jack the Giant Killer," has been admirably dramatized in blank verse and rhyme and converted into a comic opera. The production bristles with due points and is adapted to the stage with skill.

Kicking up a Dust.—A colored man by the name of Buchanan got somewhat muddled on "benzine" yesterday, and his potations seemed to strike to his heels, in consequence of which his feet flew up and he danced about in a lively manner at the First House. After awhile the thing became monotonous to bystanders, and they requested the infatigable chap to subside. This he declined to do, and a policeman was called in to enforce the order, which he did by taking him before Justice Hughes, where three dollars were assessed against the sour mash which the fellow had in him.
Peace reigns.

Badly Hurt.—Yesterday afternoon Dr. McMillen, of this city, was driving down the hill in the vicinity of the old Walton place, four miles west of town, his horse took fright and ran, throwing him out upon the frozen ground, and breaking his collar-bone.
The doctor was also badly bruised otherwise, though no other bones were broken.
He was taken to his home on North Water street, where surgical attendance was at once summoned. Though seriously hurt, it is hoped that the doctor's injuries may not prove fatal.

Grangers in Council.—The State Grange of the Patrons of Husbandry met at Powers' Hall this morning. We understand that there are about one hundred delegates in attendance, and as the wives of Grangers are admitted to the meetings of the lodge, we understand that several delegates are accompanied by their "better halves."

As the cold winter nights are now at hand, and the young man seeks his room after the busy toils of the day are over, nothing is so pleasing to him as to find a pair of Slippers to put on to rest his tired feet; therefore, young ladies, take warning, and present your gentleman friend with a pair of those fine Slippers, from the New Shoe Store, sign of the Big Boot up-side down.

good house greeted the "Uncle Tom's Cabin" Combination, at the Opera House last night, and a more delighted audience is seldom seen. Without going into the particulars, or speaking of the different characters in detail, we will say, in general terms, that the several parts were done to perfection, and every performer proved himself or herself an artist of no ordinary merit. The interesting of singing by the Jubilee Singers, added much to the interest and effect of the play. The songs were charming, and were rendered in a style that it would be hard to excel. As a whole, the entertainment was first-class.

REVISED AND ILLUSTRATED EDITION OF THE AMERICAN
CYCLOPEDIA,
Published by D. APPLETON & CO., N. Y.

THE BEST CYCLOPEDIA EVER PUBLISHED, one that will help you in all your studies, now offered to the public at a very moderate price, considering the immense cost to the publishers of producing the work.
Every one that reads, every one that mingles in society, indeed every intelligent man, needs a Cyclopaedia for constant reference.
Just think! A saving of ten cents per day, the price of a cigar, or many other expenses, for insurance or trifling loss of a like amount, would pay for a complete set of the Cyclopaedia by a monthly subscription.
Then there will be something substantially saved, and a storehouse of knowledge, indeed a universal library in itself, secured, with but little effort or sacrifice.
